This Northern Lights short break includes 2 or 3 nights half board at the Kirkenes Snow Hotel & Gamme Cabins, right at the top of Norway, and includes dog sledding, snowmobiling and a Northern Lights hunt by coach.

Additional activities available.

Winter in Kirkenes is a magical time for everyone who loves snow and winter activities. Almost at the northernmost point of Europe, and right by the borders with Russia and Finnish Lapland, Kirkenes is a fascinating melting pot of these neighbouring cultures, together with influences from Norway and the indigenous Sami people.

There are few people and plenty of nature. Beautiful, raw and diverse arctic landscapes, with tundra, mountains, dense pine forests and literally thousands of lakes. The region is blessed with long, cold and stable winters, with lots of snow. More snow equals more fun, and the colder, the more beautiful.

Live your dream of winter adventure, as you enter the door of the magical igloo hotel, the Snowhotel. Tick it off your bucket list after a cold nights sleep, and then enjoy a warm night in a luxurious Gamme cabin (or you can opt for 2 nights in a Gamme cabin and just visit the hotel).

Spend your time with arctic reindeer, huskies and puppies. Go dog sledding and drive a snowmobile (both included in the package), with options to try your hand at other winter holiday activities including king crab fishing on the frozen fjord, snowshoeing, ice fishing or visiting a local Kirkenes family. On your last day in Kirkenes you take an evening flight to Oslo (on the 4 night package you have the option to leave Kirkenes earlier in the day flying to Oslo, Copenhagen or Stockholm) where you stay for one night at an airport hotel before flying back to Dublin the next morning.

Notes: You have the option to add extra nights in Kirkenes and/or Oslo to this package – changes to the cost will apply. If travelling on dates other than those listed above you may, depending on your return flight schedule, stay overnight in Oslo, Copenhagen or Stockholm on your way home. Additional nights may be added in these cities but changes to the cost will apply. Important: Each Gamme cabin sleeps 3 persons max, you may require more than one cabin for your party.
